A 2022 BLUEPRINT TO MANIFESTING YOUR AMAZING & ABUNDANT LIFE

JANA GROSCOST

New Year - New You!

YOUR BLUEPRINT TO LIVING ABUNDANTLY

2021 was a year of change and growth. It was another year of adapting to a new normal. It supported us in looking into what mattered most and shook us to the core. As the outer world as we knew it shut down, we were forced inward.

In numerology, it was the energy of a "5" which is about transformation, curiosity and freedom. There was a need to release the past to make room for something new. Is that what happened for you? The more you allow room for change, the less suffering takes place. This year's lesson was about embracing your curiosity and being open to a variety of experiences. It's a reminder to let go and go with the flow. Everyone has experienced some sort of change in 2021.

As we step into 2022, there's a sense renewal. If you could wave a magic wand, and get everything the way you want it, this is the year to do it. In numerology it is the year of a 6 (2+0+2+2). The number 6 is the embodiment of the heart. A six is ruled by Venus, and Venus is restructuring our lives as it goes retrograde in Capricorn at the end of December. It will be moving through Capricorn for about six months, helping you align with what you love and value.

The number 6 represents unconditional love. The vibration of love is healing, nurturing and supportive. The role of the 6 is a powerful force for compassion, empathy and a beacon for hope. Its role is to use its heart and soul to be of service to others.

The number 6 shines its light on partnerships of all kinds. It embodies an empathetic sense that others feel comfortable opening up and sharing their honest feelings, which in turn allows a deeper level of understanding.

If you felt like you were flying by the seat of your pants throughout 2021, you can find firmer footing for yourself in 2022. There is a new sense of responsibility as you discover a new sense of equilibrium. Relationships will play an especially big role in 2022. Many of the people you meet could have a fated role to play in your development as an individual, acting as catalysts to help you transform into the person you are meant to become in this lifetime.

The Lovers Card

TAROT

In the major arcana, the 6 card is the Lovers. In some traditions, the Lovers represent relationships and choices. Its appearance in a spread indicates some decision about an existing relationship, a temptation of the heart, or a choice of potential partners.

Sixes reflect one's journey toward harmony. There are three parts to this concept. The first is that, in order to take a journey, one must begin by leaving. Sixes are cards of departure.

The second part is the journey itself. Sixes are cards that remind you to live in the present as you move through this transition.

The third part of the concept summarizing cards with this number is harmony. When a card with the number six appears in your Tarot reading, the outcome will be harmonious.

Let's make the most out of the New Year and create a New You! Manifesting Magic is intended to help you maximize your mental, emotional, spiritual and financial wealth, by helping you raise your vibe you align you with the good stuff you want.

As you move into the New Year, be intentional. Using the 12 Holy Days from December 26th through January 6th, supports you in being mindful and following themes and messages from your higher-self. When an aspirant lives a life motivated solely by pure and holy aspiration, the spinal spirit-fire coiled within the sacral plexus awakens and then ascends through the spinal cord to the two spiritual organs located in the head, the pineal gland and the pituitary body. It is by this process that a man's mind becomes enlightened. Hence, Sagittarius is always symbolized by light, the light of spiritualized mind. When rightly appropriated and transmuted into soul values, the experiences of daily life become stepping-stones by which an aspirant attains to atonement with the universal Divine Light.

Dedication on January 5th and throughout the solar month of February, January 21st - February 20th, is upon the Hierarchy of Aquarius.

During this period this Hierarchy holds above the earth a cosmic pattern embodying the ideals of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, the foundation for a type of friendship that is destined to expand until it becomes all inclusive and world embracing.

This ideal should be held in the soul's Holy of Holies and never marred or desecrated by an unworthy thought, word or deed. Working to bring it into manifestation is the mission of Aquarius, the divine water-bearer of the skies. Through the benign influence of the Aquarian Hierarchy love will become the motivating force in all that lives. Life is no longer a thing of struggles, but a glorious divine unity. Pisces is the last sign before the birth of the spiritual new year, a period of recapitulation and self-examination. It marks the sunset of a past life and the sunrise of a new life.

The cosmic pattern held above the earth by this Hierarchy, is one of perfected man, created in the image and likeness of God and manifesting the divine within himself. Godlike Man is the keynote of Pisces, as it is also the cosmic pattern of Aries. In fact, the perfecting of man is and has been the divine labor of all twelve creative Hierarchies since the beginning of human evolution. When it comes to its ultimate completion, it will be under the ministry of the Piscean Hierarchy.
